

Light Sport Airplane Pilot Certificate Requirements (FAR Part 61, Subpart J)

Aeronautical Experience

Airplane Category and Single Engine Land or Sea Class	You must log:	This includes:
	20 hour of flight time: -15 hours of dual instruction -5 hours of solo flight training covering areas specified in 61.311	2 hours of cross country training 10 takeoffs and landings to a full stop with each landing involving flight a flight in the traffic pattern at an airport One solo cross country flight of at least 75 nm with a full stop landing at a minimum of 2 points and one segment with a straight line distance of 25 nm or more between takeoff and landing 2 hours of flight instruction on those areas specified in 63.311 in prep for the practical test within the preceding 2 calendar months of you check ride.

Other

- (1) Possess a Driver's License or Third Class Medical
 - (1) Be aware and practice medical self-certification
- (2) Possess the proper endorsements
 - (1) TSA vetting
 - (2) Make and model, VH > 87 knots (if applicable), solo, solo cross country, written test, prep and readiness for the check ride
- (3) Pass the FAA written test for Sport Pilot with at least a 70% score (You can prep for this using an online or home study course, home study, or ground school).
- (4) . NOTE: Your flight instructor will give you a written test to test your aeronautical knowledge appropriate to and prior to solo.

NOTES: